

On Tuesday, February 10 at 7:30 pm, Dr. Patricia Bomba will be a guest on Health Link, a television show aired on WMHT (PBS, Channel 17) in the Schenectady – Albany – Troy area. Health Link will focus on the issues of MOLST (Medical Orders for Life-Sustaining Treatment). Specifically, Dr. Bomba and a panel of local professionals will address what the MOLST is, the benefits of the MOLST Program, who should have a MOLST form, and the differences between the MOLST and traditional advance directives such as the health care proxy and living will.

The panel will include:

- Patricia A. Bomba, M.D., F.A.C.P.
Vice President and Medical Director, Geriatrics, Excellus BlueCross BlueShield
- Sheila Otto, R.N., B.S.N., M.A.
Director of the Ethics Consult Service at the Alden March Bioethics Institute
- George J. Giokas, M.D.
Community Hospice Medical Director
- Michael W. Dailey, M.D., F.A.C.E.P.
Medical Director of the Regional Emergency Medical Organization and assistant professor of emergency medicine and director of pre-hospital care and education at Albany Medical College
