

MOLST Update

October 2006

Dear Colleagues,

The MOLST Guidebook has been updated and now includes the MOLST FAQs. Attached is a copy for your use and distribution in your respective organizations.

The MOLST section of the community web site www.compassionandsupport.org has been enhanced to more easily guide web site visitors to desired information. Please review and share your thoughts.

The community web site www.compassionandsupport.org is currently undergoing review. Please let me know if you have any specific suggestions. Our goal is to:

- Define a clear, concise, and consistent navigation that will easily guide web site visitors to desired information.
- Provide a logical file structure that will assist updating the web site.
- Act as a decision making tool for web site initiatives.
- Improve web site usability and optimize site structure and flow.
- Enhance your current web site structure and presence to meet objectives and workflow needs.

Thank you for your support of the MOLST Project.

Please share this email with key health care professionals in your respective settings. As always, feel free to contact me with questions.

As noted in the first update, I have received increasing inquiries regarding the MOLST Program and the pilot project from identified MOLST champions and other key health care professional leaders in both Monroe and Onondaga counties, surrounding areas and from throughout the state. To facilitate communication on a timely and regular basis, I will send periodic updates on the MOLST Program. You have received this email because you have contacted me via phone call or email. Thank you for your interest in the MOLST. Feel free to share this email with others; they may contact me and be added to the distribution of these updates. If you are not interested in receiving future updates, please let me know via email.
